ABOUT ANGELA

What do you get when mix a dynamic communicator with someone who has helped people get hired at big brands like Nike, Facebook, Disney, NBA and NASA? One of the most sought after speakers on the college circuit.

Angela Martin has worked with some of the biggest brands in the world, reviewed more than 50,000 resumes, and helped countless people get the jobs they want from internship to executive level. From working with small start-up companies to managing a department in a global company with a $2 Billion account, she can speak firsthand about employers of all types and what they are looking for in applicants. From both the internal recruiter perspective and consulting job seekers on how to land the job they want (not just the one they can get), she knows what works. Angela offers college students real-world advice on what they can do now as college students to ignite their career while still in college and land the meaningful job they want!

She also pulls from her own experience of graduating in Oklahoma and landing her first job out of college in California. Angela wants students to know that whatever they want for their career, they can have. Within one year of her own college graduation, Angela was promoted to become the youngest Creative Manager in the advertising industry worldwide (and at the agency that did Got Milk? nonetheless). Less than two years later, she was named a top employee by the partners of AdAge's "Agency of the Decade." In addition to Goodby, Silverstein and Partners, she has also helped IDEO and Facebook with recruiting and management.

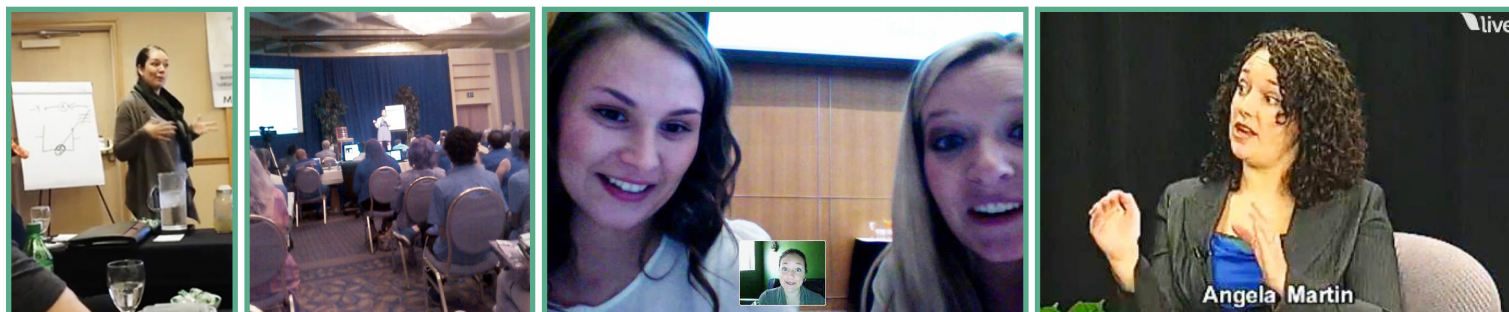

Angela is a Certified Career Coach through both the International Coach Federation (ICF) and the Center for Credentialing and Education (CCE). She is also a member of the National Association of Colleges and Employers (NACE).

During her energetic and informative keynote and training programs, Angela inspires, motivates and moves students to do the things that turn the heads of those hiring in their fields. Her programs show college students how to ignite their careers and emphasize the importance of students taking action. Her formula for landing any job you want is not only one of the best of its kind but also has a track record of results.

Angela can relate to students from all backgrounds and levels as if her message was meant exclusively for them

Angela motivates audiences to take action that will forever improve their careers and lives

ANGELA'S MOST REQUESTED TALKS

KEYNOTE
IGNITE YOUR CAREER WHILE STILL IN COLLEGE
EVERYTHING YOU NEED TO KNOW TO LAND ANY JOB YOU WANT

This is Angela's signature program that leaves your students inspired with the information they need to land any job they want. After getting people hired to work with Nike, Facebook, Disney, NBA, Nintendo, Mattel, L'Oreal, Adobe, NASA and more, Angela's program is one of the best on the college circuit. Her G.O.A.L. formula that guides students to land any job they want is not only one of the best of its kind but also has a track record of results. Most students settle for whatever job they CAN get rather than landing the job they WANT. Angela has a passion to help students pursue and land the meaningful job they truly want. If you are ready for your students to excitedly take ownership of their job searches and in turn boost student job placement rates, then you must bring this program to your campus.

Learning Outcomes

Students will be able to:

- List the 4-step plan they can do now as college students to land any job they want
- Name the 2 areas they must grow while in school in order to land an awesome job even if they haven't decided their career path yet
- Identify the 2 types of organizations to be involved in to ignite their careers while still in college

TRAINING
IGNITE YOUR CAREER NOW
EVERYTHING YOU NEED TO KNOW TO LAND ANY JOB YOU WANT

This is Angela's 2-3 hour training program where she will do a deep dive into how students can land any job they want by starting now. Her ideas are different, unorthodox... and they work! Angela has gotten people hired to work with Nike, Facebook, Disney, NBA, Nintendo, Mattel, L'Oreal, Adobe, NASA and more. She has reviewed more than 50,000 resumes and knows exactly what it takes for your students to stand out from their competition and be the choice for desirable companies such as these. In Angela's training, your students will get their questions answered and will walk away with a custom step-by-step action plan of what to do after the training to land any job they want. If you want your students to get the V.I.P. treatment for 2-3 hours of world-class career training, this is the program for you. It is proven and one of the best on the college circuit.

Learning Outcomes

Students will be able to:

- Easily list the 5 things to say when "cold calling" an employer
- Identify the most important element of applying to any job
- State the #1 question to ask themselves before every interview
- Name the first thing to do immediately after interviewing (This comes before writing thank-you notes!)

ATTENTION STUDENT COORDINATORS & CAREER CENTERS

Dear Coordinators and Directors,

I am different than most career speakers. I have direct experience in helping people get hired for some of the biggest brands in the world. Some of them include Nike, Facebook, Disney, NBA, NASA and many more. Both as an internal recruiter and as an outside consultant to job seekers, I've helped people land the meaningful jobs they want (not just the jobs they can get).

It's been a privilege working with big brands and helping countless people get hired - from internship to executive level; however, my passion is helping college students land their own meaningful jobs. That's what makes successful graduates, and that's what I want for each and every one of your students.

Most students land jobs for 2 reasons: their knowledge and their network. After reviewing more than 50,000 resumes, many from students just like yours, I am on a mission to give students the exact information needed to land any job they want and equip them to start building their network within 24 hours of my leaving your campus.

All the best,
Angela Martin
